ANNOUNCE PROGRAM FOR P.-T. A. LUNCH AND CONFERENCE TOMORROW

Mrs. Charles H. Toll, Ebell Club President, One of Prominent Speakers

PLAN ALL-DAY SESSION

Musical Program of Unusual Merit Will Be Given by a Number of Artists

The program announced for the all-day conference and luncheon of the Parent-Teacher associations, which will take place tomorrow at the First Methodist church, would indicate that there is a real treat in store for those who attend.

Mrs. Charles H. Toll will be one of the speakers of the morning session, which begins at 10 o'clock. Her subject will be "Education and Reading Circles." Captain Dru Nicoles will give an address on "Patriotism"; this is another interesting feature of the morning's program.

The luncheon will be served at 12 o'clock, and the afternoon's session includes features of intense interest.

Mrs. Frederick Dow, formerly of Chicago but now a Glendale resident, will give an illuminating and inspiring talk on "Thrift"; Lincoln Hart, founder of the Ethical Motion Picture society, has a message of vital interest to every father and mother, and Dr. George Pomeroy's talk on conditions in Turkey will be first hand knowledge on a timely topic.

A musical program of unusual merit will include numbers by the glee club of the Intermediate school and music students of the high school, pipe organ solos by Mrs. Kuehny and a group of songs by Mrs. Robert Wankowski.

All P.-T. A. members are invited ot attend one or all of these sessions. Reservations for the luncheon may be had by telephoning Mrs. C. H. Thompson, 348 Milford, Glendale 459-W.

SHOWER IS GIVEN FOR RECENT BRIDE

Mrs. James Shea, nee Irene Mauk, a former Glendale girl who was married in Phoenix, Ariz., recently, was complimented by a group of her friends last evening with a miscellaneous shower given by Misses Lila Webster and Cecilia Lyons, at the Webster home, 1020 South Central avenue.

Pink and white flowers, artistically arranged, carried out the dainty color scheme chosen by the hostesses to adorn the rooms where they entertained their guests, and the same motif was carried out in the dining room where refreshments were served at a prettily appointed table.

Mrs. Shea was showered with beautiful and useful gifts, and music and conversation were the pastimes of the pleasant affair, which was enjoyed by Mmes. James Shea, J. T. Beach, Sidney Simon, Noble Ripley, Misses Ernestine Lyons, Alice Grey Beach, Lila Shea, Alberta Heisler, and the hostesses, iMsses Lila Webster and Cecilia Lyons.

Will Aid Pueblo

Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, chairman of the Glendale Chapter of the American Red Cross, has received a message from the office of the Pacific division authorizing the chapter to receive contributions for the Colorado flood sufferers and act as a clearing house for such funds. It is a great satisfaction to know that President Harding quite naturally turned to the Red Cross as the rational agency to handle the work of relief, and the national organization has appropriated $100,000 for the purpose from the reserve fund it holds to meet such calls.

In this connection it is a matter of interest to know that Casa Verdugo ladies, headed by Mrs. Crossland, are responding to the call for money to aid these suffering people and will hold a food sale Saturday at the Gray & Gray Grocery on Central avenue, the proceeds of which will be sent to Pueblo.

IMPROVEMENTS TO BE MADE ON ELKS LODGE BUILDING

Eleven Rooms Will Be Added on Third Floor—Large Addition, Probably of Two Stories, To Be Built on Elk Avenue Frontage—Other Changes

Work on the third floor of the Glendale Elks' Lodge building is going forward very satisfactorily. Plastering is completed, the wood finishers are at work and by next Monday the painters will come in. The space has been divided as it was on the second floor and 11 rooms will be available. All have been rented in advance and the men who have engaged them are impatiently waiting for a chance to occupy them. That will probably not come before the latter part of July because painting is slow work. All this will add to the income of the club. Janitors' rooms are also being provided for.

Relative to plans for utilizing the property purchased recently on Elk avenue, it is the intention of the lodge to build below a commodious entertainment hall with a good stage and audience room large enough to enable the lodge to put on such entertainments as it gave recently in the Palace Grand. Above that on the main floor a lodge room will be built adequate for the needs of the organization for some time to come. The present lodge hall is often crowded now. The narrow card room will be converted into a passage way leading to the new part and doors will be cut from this into the present lodge hall, a portion of which will be converted into commodious coat rooms.

The present office is entirely too small for the work necessary to be carried on and it will be moved to the right where a larger office will be built that will take in the present coat rooms and some of the space devoted to ladies' rooms beyond. The present ante-rooms and remaining space in the ladies' parlor will be thrown together to provide better accommodatioins for feminine guests of

PUEBLO KNOWN DEAD NOW NUMBER 75; EPIDEMIC NOT FEARED

(By International News Service)

PUEBLO, Colo., June 9.—With forty-six bodies officially reported at the city morgue, about twenty bodies recovered by troops and eight or ten known to have been buried by relatives, the known dead in Pueblo's disastrous floods reached seventy-five today. It is believed that the real harvest of victims will begin tomorrow or Saturday, when the stagnant pools in the low-lying sections of the city have been cleared.

While a few cases of smallpox and typhoid have broken out among the Mexican residents, fear of a general pestilence is ended, acocrding to United States public health service officials.

Estimates of property damage continue to grow, and $26,000,000 is stated by well-informed real estate men as the minimum damage within the city.

Reports sifting in here from the lower Arkansas valley continue to tell of the widespread devastation in the territory between Pueblo and Lemar, along the Arkansas river. Many bodies have been recovered in this area, some of them, it is believed however, having been washed down by the raging torrents from Pueblo. It will be many days before the full extent of the property loss and death toll over the 150-mile area from Pueblo to the Kansas state line is known.

GIRLS' CHRISTIAN CIRCLE MEETING

The Girls' Christian Circle met Tuesday night at the Baptist church under the leadership of Miss Maude Soper, with about 75 girls present. Ladies of the Central Avenue Methodist church served the supper, which was followed by a study hour on the Book of Matthew. The fact that Miss Soper had lived in Japan and is acquainted with Oriental customs made it possible for her to illuminate many passages in the Bible which the girls had not understood.

The supper tables were charmingly decorated with flowers and there was a bunch of sweet peas at the plate of each guest.

GIRL GIVES PRETTY BIRTHDAY PARTY

Elizabeth Mary, daughter of Mrs. James B. McEnany, gave a party to thirty of her little friends yesterday at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. W. E. Borthick, 206 West Elk avenue, in honor of her fifth birthday. The little folk played games in the lawn and refreshments of delicious pink and white ice cream and cake were served to the little merrymakers.

STATUS OF GRADE SCHOOL BALL TEAMS

Two Teams of Cerritos Were Defeated by Pacific and Intermediate Teams

For the first time during the present series of games, the two indoor ball teams of Cerritos avenue school met defeat Wednesday afternoon. Cerritos fifth and sixth grade team played against Pacific avenue talent, the game ending with a score of 15 to 6 in favor of Pacific. This leaves Cerritos and Pacific tied for the championship of the fifth and sixth grade league. To determine the winner a series of three games will be played next week.

Immediately after the game mentioned above a game was played on the Cerritos field between the first team of Cerritos and first team of Intermediate, the boys of the school last named winning with a score of 17 to 5. The championship for the seventh and eighth grade league now rests between these two teams. To determine this championship seven games have been planned, and the winner of four games out of the seven will secure the pennant for the seventh and eighth grade division. The score for this series of games now stands Cerritos 2, Intermediate 1. The fourth game of the series will be played Friday night on Intermediate field.

CHURCH NIGHT AT CENTRAL CHRISTIAN

Thinking it was probably the last supper to be held in the present church bungalow, a record crowd gathered at the Central Christian church last evening for "church night" activities. About 100 people partook of the bountiful supper and all were cheered by the prospect that there may possibly be one or two more before building activities will necessitate a discontinuance for the present.

These suppers have developed the fact that the church membership has very many fine cooks. The serving committee is changed each month and nearly all the ladies of the congregation have served at some time.

The one adverse note was the absence of the pastor, Rev. C. A. Cole, who was in temporary quarantine on account of illness in his family.

Following the supper a fine prayer meeting, attended by fully 75 members was held, many taking part.

Choir practice followed.

ELKS' CONTRIBUTIONS TO FLOOD SUFFERERS

When asked whether any action would be taken by the local Elks' Lodge to raise funds for the flood sufferers at Pueblo, Secretary Kimball said: "Matters of that kind are taken care of by our grand lodge, which has a fund held for just such calls, a fund to which all lodges contribute, and I presume the grand lodge will be generous in this instance. It is the only way by which such things can be handled systematically."

I. O. O. F. Memorial Day

Glendale Lodge, No. 338, I. O. O. F., are making preparations to attend the elaborate ceremonies in memory of those of the order who have passed on, which will be held next Sunday at the Independent Order of Odd Fellows' cemetery, 3640 Stephenson avenue, Los Angeles.

The graves will be decorated at 10 o'clock in the morning; the memorial service will take place at 2:30.

The ceremony includes special services by the Rebekahs for the late sovereign grand secretary, John B. Goodwin, and addresses by Chairman Bert Shangle and Past President Ada Madison. The eulogy will be pronounced by Grand Warden E. R. Longley.

Beautiful and appropriate musical numbers, including vocal solos, trios, violin solos and orchestral selections will form a part of the program. The audience will open the service with the singing of "Nearer, My God, to Thee" and close it with "Abide With Me."

"MARY'S MILLIONS" AT HIGH SCHOOL TONIGHT AND TOMORROW

On Thursday and Friday evenings of this week, "Mary's Millions," a comedy drama by Frederick Johnson, will be presented by the Senior Dramatics class of the Glendale Union high school in the high school auditorium at 8 o'clock.

The cast has worked both day and night, in order to make this the best play that has ever been produced by any graduating class of the school, and has shown itself well able to hold an audience. Movie stage managers have helped to prepare the settings and the critics say that the play shows professionality.

"Mary's Millions" is a modern play, which is shown by the presence of a ouija board and the use of some late slang expressions. It is laid in a small New Hampshire town. The first and last acts take place in the village post office and general store, and the second act takes place at a strawberry festival in the woods. Miss Mona Gardner, who is directing the play, thinks that it is the best that could be selected as there is no leading part.

READING CIRCLE HAS LAST MEET OF YEAR

Members of the Mutual Benefit Reading Circle held their last meeting of the year at the city library Wednesday afternoon, with about forty-five present, all as enthusiastic and interested as though it were the first instead of the final session.

"Is the Younger Generation in Peril?" was the educational article considered. It was reviewed by Mrs. Aicholz and caused much discussion.

Very reluctantly the circle accepted the resignation of Mrs. C. H. Crawford as educational chairman and Mrs. H. V. Henry was appointed to fill the vacancy.

Final arrangements were made for the circle picnic, which is to take place Wednesday, June 15, at La Ramada.

There was the usual luncheon and social hour, and the reading of the current book, "Why Children Err," was continued at the afternoon session.

MUSIC SECTION TO HAVE LUNCHEON

The concluding function of the music section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club will be a luncheon at the White Inn Monday, June 13, at 1 p. m. Reservations for this pleasant affair will close Friday and those desiring to attend should communicate with Mrs. A. S. Thaxter, Glendale 1120-J.

Obstinate Peddler

A peddler who had stopped his fruit wagon at the corner of Brand and Broadway yesterday afternoon, refused to move it when told to do so. His license was taken and he was ordered out of the city by the police.

COL. FRANK W. GALBRAITH JR. KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Commander of American Legion Suffers Fractured Skull as Result of Automobile Overturning—Companions Seriously Injured—One May Die

(By International News Service)

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 9.—Col. Fred W. Galbraith, jr., commander of the American Legion, was killed early today, Col. Milton J. Foreman, of Chicago, commander of the Illinois Legion, was seriously injured and Henry Ryan, head of the Americanization committee of the American Legion, was cut and bruised, when the automobile in which they were riding toppled over an embankment. Col. Foreman is believed to have a fractured skull and physicians this morning held out little hope for his recovery.

The three men were returning from the country club in Ryan's car when the machine skidded at a turn, ran across a sidewalk, turned somersault and landed nose down at the foot of a steep embankment. All three were thrown clear of the car, but Commander Galbraith died of a fractured skull shortly afterwards.

Ryan told the police he had been driving pretty fast, because of the desire of Galbraith and Foreman to catch a train, but said he was going only 22 miles an hour when he came to the turn. He said he was not sure whether the car had failed to work or whether he had misjudged the turn.

Col. Galbraith was elected commander of the American Legion at its convention in Cleveland last September. He was born in Watertown, Mass., May 6, 1874. During the war he commanded the 147th infantry. In civilian life Col. Galbraith was the head of the Western Paper Goods company of Cincinnati and was a former president of the Cincinnati Business Men's Club and of the Rookery Club of that city.

Col. Foreman is a Chicago lawyer who, before the war, was an officer of the Illinois National Guard and who served overseas as commander of American troops.

FRED THOMPSON ELECTED DIRECTOR

Former President Chosen One of Board of Glendale Savings Bank

At the regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Glendale Savings bank, Fred L. Thompson was elected a director to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of George T. Paine.

Mr. Thompson was a resident of Glendale for several years and is well and favorably known here. Though he resides in Los Angeles at present, he has never lost his interest in Glendale, and by the purchase of stock in the Glendale Savings bank, and the acceptance of a place on its board of directors, he shows his faith in the future of the city.

Mr. Thompson is especially well known among the many members of the Christian church here. He still retains his membership in that congregation, and is a leader in the large men's class in the Sunday school. It will be a bit of good news to his many friends there, as well as in other circles, to know that he is acquiring interests here that will eventually bring him and his estimable family back to Glendale.

GLENDALE CITIZENS TO ATTEND BANQUET

A delegation of representative Glendale citizens, including C. C. Cooper and J. M. Rhoades, president and secretary, respectively, of the Chamber of Commerce, L. T. Rowley, Spencer Robinson, E. F. Sands, Kennedy, H. E. Bartlett and G. R. Royce, will be guests at a dinner given this evening by the directors of the San Fernando valley fair association at the San Fernando hotel.

The big fair to be held in San Fernando in September will be the topic of discussion and plans will be formulated to make this event the best thing of its kind that has ever taken place in this valley.

NEW OFFICERS FOR LOS ANGELES CITY

Complete returns show that George E. Cryer has been elected mayor of Los Angeles by a majority of 6159 votes over M. P. Snyder.

The official returns show 54,433 ballots given the victorious candidate. Mayor Snyder received 48,274 votes.

Mallard, Conaway, Wheeler, Criswell, Sanborn and Langdon, present members of the city council, were re-elected. Newly elected members of the council are R. S. Sparks, who was for many years marriage license clerk for Los Angeles county, W. C. Mushet, formerly city auditor, and Robert M. Allan.

The new officers will enter upon their duties July 1.

MOTORMAN OF DEATH CAR ON PACIFIC ELECTRIC FINED FOR SPEEDING

This morning, the hearing in the case brought by the city of Glendale street, Los Angeles, motorman of the Pacific Electric Burbank train which caused the death of Miss Eugenia Lindsey at Los Feliz and Brand boulevard, was had before Judge Lowe in the council chamber of the city hall. The defendant, who had pleaded guilty, was represented by Attorney Taggart of Los Angeles, and the city by Attorney Hartley Shaw.

The question at issue was the degree of speed at which the train was travelling. About 15 witnesses were examined. Defendant himself testified to 18 miles an hour. His conductor thought it was 20 miles. Other witnesses varied in their estimates from 22 miles to 45 miles an hour. Defendant admitted he had coasted from Lomita avenue to Los Feliz road.

Before pronouncing sentence Judge Lowe reviewed the facts in the case and the gain in speed which such a train might reasonably be expected to make when coasting, based on tests which had been made with motor vehicles since the accident occurred. He also reviewed the testimony offered and said:

"The court is fully convinced that this train was being driven at a rate materially in excess of the speed allowed under ordinance 400 of the city of Glendale, and I find the defendant guilty upon his own plea."

Attorney for defendant consented to waive time for sentence and stated that he considered the testimony of some of the witnesses examined had exaggerated the speed of the train.

Th judge then imposed a fine of $20, for violation of the ordinance or an alternative sentence of 20 days in the city jail, and defendant paid the fine.

KENSINGTON CLUB MET YESTERDAY

The social organization of the Women's Relief Corps, better known as the Kensington Club, met Wednesday afternoon of the present week at the home of Mrs. C. R. Norton, with 27 members present. Enough blocks for a quilt, which will be made by the club, were donated by Mrs. M. L. Weaver. At the close of a very pleasant social afternoon, refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Burns and Mrs. Sanders.

The next meeting of the club will be held July 13, at the home of Mrs. Priscilla Houdyshel, 308 North Orange street.

Small Grass Fire

A small grass fire called the fire department to the 200 block West Maple about 1 o'clock this afternoon. The fire was quickly extinguished and there was no damage.

TWO POLICEMEN ARE KILLED IN ATTEMPT TO EVICT MAN FROM ROOM

Riot Squad "Shooting It Out" With Murderer, Who Is Barricaded

POLICE USE AMMONIA

Machine Gun Is Trained on Door of Room and His Capture Certain

(By International News Service)

TOLEDO, O., June 9.—With two policemen already shot to death a police riot squad today is "shooting it out" with a man named Kelly, who has barricaded himself in his home on Walnut street. Scores of shots have already been exchanged by the police and Kelly.

Policeman Harold Mossbruge was first slain when he attempted to arrest Kelly for failing to pay room rent. Policeman Harry Dowell, who went to Mossbrugge's assistance, was also shot to death.

The riot squad is attempting to "smoke Kelly out," by using sulphur bombs.

The police are now using ammonia water and a machine gun on the house in an effort to drive the murderer out. He has been identified as Thomas Kelly, aged 48, formerly of Oklahoma. The body of Patrolman Dowell lies in the street where he fell when shot dead. Mossbrugge's body is in the attic of the house, where he made a rush to get Kelly but was killed. A fire hose is being used to spray the house with ammonia.

Y. M. C. A. TESTS AT PINE FLATS CAMP

So Many Are Registered for Second Camp Accommodations May Give Out

The picture herewith shows one of the Y. M. C. A. directors giving a boy a physical examination at Pine Flats camp last year. It is the kind of an examination that Dr. E. E. Clark, of Alhambra, who will be at the camp throughout the season this year, will give to each boy when he enters, and after giving him this "once over," he will advise the boy how to better himself physically. If any defect of a serious nature is discovered, the parents will be notified. The examination covers the throat, eyes, ears, nose and spine.

Secretary Rex Kelley says the contract has just been let for packing in supplies to the Pine Flats camp. It is no small matter, because everything is transported on the backs of burros and packed in boxes and bundles of a certain weight, shape and size. Last year, five tons of stuff was carried in that way and it will be a larger amount this year because the camp has been enlarged.

Mr. Kelley says that while the boys are now registering rapidly, most of the reservations are for the second camp, and he is afraid the accommodations will not hold out. The reasons for deferring the trip in most cases is the coming C. E. convention which the boys wish to attend, and the big Fourth of July celebration that is to take place at Burbank.

The charge against profanity is that when it isn't necessary it is superfluous and when it is necessary it is inadequate.

TELEGRAPH BRIEFS

WASHINGTON, June 9.—A distinct "hitch" has developed in the negotiations now in progress between President Obregon and George T. Summerlin, American charge d'affaires in Mexico City, over the treaty of amity and commerce which has been proposed by the United States for readjusting relations between the two countries, it was indicated here today. How serious this "hitch" may be was not learned, but it was apparent that negotiations are not proceeding as speedily and satisfactorily as officials would like.

LONDON, June 9.—Rear Admiral William S. Sims, U. S. N., who has been asked by Secretary of the Navy Denby at Washington to report by cable immediately whether he was correctly quoted in his sensational "Jackass speech" Tuesday, when he made caustic remarks about the Sinn Fein and Irish Americans "will neither retract nor repudiate," according to an interview with the American naval officer printed in the Westminster Gazette today.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—President Harding and Secretary of the Treasury Mellon today conferred relative to means for immediate credit relief for the livestock industry. A plan to supplant that of the federal reserve board, whereby $50,000,000 would be available to the war finance corporation for livestock credits, has been evolved. It is understood that a new plan will not require legislative action and that possible opposition in congress has made this plan seem advisable.

BERLIN, June 9.—Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, rich American draft dodger, whose property in the United States was recently seized by the American government, sent word from Eberlach, Baden, that he soon will be married and that his wife will bring suit for restoration of the property.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—A United States marine corps airplane fell into the Potomac river off Colonial Beach, Va., this morning and Lieut. W. B. Brown, pilot, was killed, the navy department was advised. Sergeant Bugby, who was in the plane, was rescued.

NEW YORK, June 9.—"S. O. S. S. O. S. Have hit iceberg. Bow completely stove in. Condition serious. Send immediate assistance." This call coming from a vessel in distress in the ice fields—the second within 24 hours—was received today by the naval communications radio station at Otter Cliffs, Maine.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., June 9.—The six negroes sentenced to die in the electric chair tomorrow for complicity in the 1919 Elaine race riots were granted a stay of execution today, pending the outcome of habeas corpus proceedings in the Pulaski chancery court. The negroes, convicted specifically of the murder of Clifton Lee, world war veteran, are Frank Moore, Paul Hall, Frank and Edward Hicks, J. E. Knox and Edward Coleman.

CHICAGO, June 9.—Warfare between drivers of rival taxicab companies was held responsible today for the slaying of T. A. Skirven, a chauffeur. Skirven was shot and killed as he sat in his cab by assailants who dashed past in a touring car which contained seven men. Before the shooting of Skirven several battles between taxicab drivers had been reported to the police from various parts of the city.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 9.—Deputy Sheriff V. H. Ormsby made plans today to leave this evening on the Pacific Limited for Twin Falls, Idaho, with Mrs. Lyda Eva Southard, alleged "bluebeardess," who is going back there to face an indictment charging her with the murder of her fourth husband, Ed Meyers.

DENVER, June 9.—Milton Snelling of Washington, D. C., president of the International Union of Steam and Operating Engineers, dropped dead this morning. He retired last night apparently in good health. Snelling, who was one of the best known labor leaders in the country, was a delegate to the approaching convention of the American Federation of Labor.

WASHINGTON, June 9. — Major General Menoher, chief of the army air service, has asked Secretary of War Weeks for the removal of Brig. Gen. William Mitchell, assistant chief of the army air service, it was learned today. The request for the removal of General Mitchell comes as the result of friction in the air service over the activity of the assistant chief for a Unitd States air service and in the controversy as to the relative value of the airplane and the battleship. Secretary of War Weeks stated today that he had taken no action in the matter as yet, but that he intended to remove the friction which exists.

NEW YORK, June 9.—Col. William Hester, president of the Brooklyn Daily Eagle, died at his Brooklyn home today. He had worked his way up to the presidency of the newspaper from office boy.

FORD MOTOR CO. IS AGAIN A PIONEER IN REDUCING PRICES

Coming as a pleasant surprise to the entire country, on Tuesday, June 7, the Ford Motor company announced a further reduction on all models.

To say the least, this is a great surprise. This new reduction has been made possible by increased output and greater efficiency. Another thing which contributed to the reduction is the fact that materials have been reduced and that new contracts for the purchase of steel are being placed at lower figures.

It is the goal of the Ford Motor company to manufacture at the rate of a million and a quarter cars a year and if the present production basis of over 4000 a day continues, this will be a reality before January 1, 1922.

To put it mildly, the demand for cars is redoubled and as the local Ford branch reported a shortage previous to the decrease, after all this new price reduction can be regarded as another philanthropic effort of Henry Ford.

U-Boat To Be Plane Target

(By International News Service)

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., June 9.—The U-111, a former German submarine, for the past year tied up at the navy yard here, is to be used as a target for naval aviators in maneuvers off the Delaware Capes, it is announced here. A thorough study of the construction of the craft, believed one of the best German makes, was made by naval officials and mechanics during her stay here.

THEATERS

Palace Grand

With three stellar numbers already announced for the American Legion sick fund benefit performance at the Palace Grand theater, Wednesday night, June 15, at 8 o'clock, Glendale people are awaiting with the keenest anticipation for further announcement on the twelve all-star acts.

While the McAdam dancers will furnish one of the biggest numbers from the standpoint of number, Madame Constance Balfour, soprano, supported by Esther Rhodes, harpist, and Morris Stoloff, violinist, are artists whose concert would be worth twice the price of admission alone. Then there are three Russians, Sonia Zariova, soloist; G. W. Golukeff, mandolin and A. N. Ivanoff, balaika, who will add to the novelty of the evening's entertainment.

Several film stars will appear in acts they have played over the big-time in vaudeville, and as the week progresses, the program will round out into one of wonders.

BRAND BOULEVARD ASSOCIATION MEETING

Glendale Daily Press:—

We will very much appreciate your giving publicity to this call of a meeting of the Brand Boulevard Improvement association at the Chamber of Commerce headquarters on West Broadway, Friday evening at 7:45 o'clock.

A report of the committee that waited on officials of the Pacific Electric railway company with a view to getting the cooperation of that company in the lowering of its tracks, etc., will be made; also a report of the committee on the purposes and aims of the association. Both these committees have gone into their respective matters and their reports will be of extreme interest to all citizens interested in the improvement of Brand boulevard throughout the entire city. Furthermore, permanent officers will be elected.

MATTISON B. JONES,
President.

MEN'S BIBLE CLASS MEETS TONIGHT

The Men's Bible class, of the Central Christian church, of which C. W. Bacon is teacher, will hold a very important meeting this evening at the home of A. K. Finley, vice-president of the class, at 434 West Doran street, The men are to meet at the church from 7:00 to 7:15 and go to Mr. Finley's by auto. Each man is urged to be there.

Improvements To Be Made On Elks Lodge Building

the lodge, and the remaining space in the lodge hall will probably be converted into billiard rooms.

This, however, is a long look ahead. The purchase of the property and the improvements now being made on the third floor have set the organization back about $20,000 and not until that indebtedness is taken care of will a new building campaign take place, say the officers. At the rate at which the lodge is growing but a few years will be required to wipe out this debt because the present expenditures are for income property. The new rooms on the third floor, as stated, have all been rented in advance, and the former owners of the Elk avenue property were glad to remain as tenants at a good rental until such time as the ground is required. When that time comes the house will be moved to another lot and disposed of, so the lodge will be carrying no dead wood.

It was very clear that expansion would soon become a necessity and lodge officials felt it would be a shrewd move to get the adjoining property while the getting was good even at an inflated price, because it was the only means of relieving the situation.

There has also been talk of a swimming pool in connection with the addition to the club house and that may become a reality too if a sewer system is established which will make it possible to empty and replenish such a pool.

So live that when your summons comes you can go into the divorce court without fear of what the headlines will say.

GLENDALE W. C. T. U. MEETING HEARS CONVENTION REPORT

Mrs. Edith S. Dockeray Gives a Full Account of Great Gathering of Temperance Workers at Pomona and Tells of Success of Jubilee Fund

Glendale W. C. T. U., Friday, June 3, 1921. Thirty ladies met at the home of Mrs. Samuel Dick, 309 North Louise, to listen to the report of the 39th annual convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union of Southern California, of which there are now over 6000 members. The First Baptist church at Pomona was beautifully decorated and delegates were there for the opening session on Tuesday from all the Southern counties. The Glendale Union was represented by Mrs. Marie Yoeman, county president; Mrs. Louise Morton, assistant recording secretary of county; Mrs. Lilla Richardson, corresponding secretary of county; Mrs. Edith S. Dockeray, vice president; Mrs. Marie Gifford, recording secretary; Mrs. Nannie Palmer, superintendent of Southern California Home; Mrs. Hattie Gaylord, county superintendent of Sabbath observance.

The reports were in part as follows:

Tuesday morning was given over to appointing committees and officers reports. Mrs. Hattie C. Young, state recording secretary, spoke of the wonderful success they had had in raising the Jubilee fund. Two years ago they took as their motto, "The World Dry in 1925," and they knew that to accomplish this and also help in the reconstruction work they must have money. It has never been their plan before to ask for money, but the needs were so great, and God answered their prayers and gave them wonderful success. Foremost throughout the year in this work was our beloved president, Helen M. Stoddard. The topic of her annual address was "Sacrifice and Service," and she urged that there be no letting down of banners or slowing up of service, till we had reached our goal of a million members, twelve thousand for Southern California. "Progress always means sacrifice" and the 18th amendment is not without its martyrs that fell on the battle front—a Haddock, a Brooks, a Pickney, a Cammock, all gave full measure of devotion to advance the cause and little children all over the United States, whose fathers are buying them shoes instead of spending their money in the open saloon, will rise up to call them "blessed." Among the superintendents that reported was Mrs. Hattie M. Doughty, who spoke of the splendid work done among the young people and Mrs. Ellen Dayton Blair (who is 84 years young), the work of the Loyal Temperance Legion. She said nearly all our men who are standing for right living and clean thinking had their first training in the Loyal Temperance Union and Young People's Band.

nance of the Home Center for Service Men at San Diego. Mrs. E. L. Barnes, the house mother, gave a fine report; a grand total of 11,844 men have been received and entertained without cost to them, and to show that the boys appreciated this they always come back. Many touching incidents were related by Mrs. Barnes, showing how much the boys need a motherly woman in which to confide.

One of the finest things that has been done this year was the maintenance

The Women's Christian Temperance Union also maintains a home for girls at their building in the Temple block. The few weeks spent in the "Frances Willard Home" has saved many a girl that had no place to go but into the streets. During this past year 1300 homes reported to the police that a girl was missing, and many of them are lured to Los Angeles hoping to get work in the moving pictures and find themselves without money or friends. To such the Women's Christian Temperance Union is always ready to lend a hand.

The departments that are to be given special attention this year are "Child Welfare," "Americanization," "Christian Citizenship," "Legislation," "Medical Temperance," "Evangelistic," "Anti-Narcotics," "Parliamentary drills." A new auxiliary composed of "Mothers and Daughters of the Temperance Crusade," was proposed by Mrs. I. W. Gleason, national parliamentarian, Mrs. Stella B. Irvine, founder of this organization, was made president emeritus. A list of other officers will appear in the White Ribbon paper for June.

The following state officers were elected for the coming year: Mrs. Eva C. Wheeler of Puente, president; Mrs. Julia D. Phelps of Los Angeles, vice president; Mrs. Clara B. Sheldon of Los Angeles, treasurer; Miss Ada B. Cummings, Santa Paula, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Hattie C. Young, Los Angeles, recording secretary; Mrs. Lea Warren, Santa Ana, assistant recording secretary.

Mrs. Wheeler has been national lecturer for a number of years and with her knowledge of the work, will make a splendid leader. Mrs. Phelps was for years president of Los Angeles county and all were glad that she is to serve another year as vice president.

In passing we wish to remark that we have attended many conventions and usually the mayor is represented by some one with a good excuse for not appearing, but we were given a splendid address by Mayor Ovington. He said he was glad to welcome a body of women who were fighting to make the world "safe for humanity." He said he hoped they would keep up their fight till the only liquor would be that which God brews for his children in the eternal hills—pure water.

Another pleasure was the American Legion Glee Club, composed of 16 fine young men, and they surely can sing.

I wish I had space to tell you of the splendid address by Rev. Gustav Brieglieb, D. D., of the Westlake Presbyterian church of Los Angeles, but you can tell from his topic, "Let's Be Decent Americans," that it was worth while. But I must not close without telling you of the automobile drive all through the suburbs of Pomona and to the new amphitheater at Ganesha park, and the fine picnic dinner the ladies had ready under the trees at the Park picnic grounds. Pomona may be "blue," but it is a fine place to go for a convention.

JOYCE HEARS PEGGY REFERRED TO AS "FAITHFUL WIFE"

(By International News Service)

CHICAGO, June 9.—James Stanley Joyce, lumber prince, went into Judge Sabath's courtroom today in disguise, to hear in public the startling revelations of pretty Peggy Joyce's career in matrimony and millions.

Joyce broke his seclusion of months to attend the hearing of Peggy's petition of $120,000 a year temporary alimony. He was under guard of a private detective, but mingled with the hundreds of curious spectators.

Counsel for Peggy once halted proceedings in an effort to find Joyce among the spectators. They failed, however.

Peggy, it was announced by her counsel, will not appear in court until the actual trial of her divorce case, next fall.

Attorneys today devoted themselves to arguments on the granting of temporary alimony and $100,000 for solicitor's fees and suit costs.

From his hiding place in the crowd, Joyce heard Peggy's attorneys term her a "faithful wife." He also heard the "other woman" named when counsel read Peggy's reply to his suit for divorce.

Joyce's attorneys retaliated by reading the lumber prince's answer to Peggy's cross bill. In it, Joyce declared his bride had "trapped" him into parting with money and property on the theory that she was "an honest wife." Joyce also charged Peggy had entered into a conspiracy with other persons "to rob him" of his property and had married him to obtain "unlawful ends."

ERZBERGER IS TARGET OF HATE

By FRANK E. MASON
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

BERLIN, June 9.—The Erzberger tax-dodging case, like the celebrated Dreyfus case of France, shows signs of developing into a factional feud threatening to extend over years. Although it is faced with the difficult problems of reparation, of disarming the unwilling Bavarians, and of running a bankrupt nation, the Reichstag prefers to spend much of its time in the lobbies discussing whether or not Matthias Erzberger is a tax-dodger.

Matthias Erzberger is the one man, more than any other, who is responsible for the Germans signing the Versailles treaty. As a result he is hated by a group of pan-Germans which had had expectations of signing a far different treaty, with clauses making Belgium a commercial colony of Germany. A former secretary of the treasury under the emperor, Karl Helfferich, was the leader in the movement to disgrace Erzberger and drive him from political life.

In January, 1920, while Erzberger was minister of finance, his tax return certificates were stolen from the finance ministry; the material in them soon began to appear in the royalistic press. Erzberger immediately ordered an investigation of his tax payments and withdrew from the post as minister of finance. He left office with Noske at the time of the Kapp revolution.

His Return May Help Allies

For the past year Erzberger has been one of the powers behind the cabinet—and, although he lived in the strictest retirement, he has been taken into counsel on many of the important crises through which the government has passed. His socialist and centrum friends wish him to return to active political life and are seeking to reinstate him in the cabinet.

They accuse the monarchist group of having made Erzberger the sacrifice of a political intrigue, and by means of interpellations in the reichstag and discussions in the lobbies are attempting to make the Erzberger case a boomerang against the royalists.

The centrum party claims that its chief not only is not a tax-dodger, but that he overpaid his taxes and cite the court decision in evidence. Erzberger was neither fined nor ordered to pay up back taxes.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR ACTIVITIES

PREPARING FOR BIG ENDEAVOR CONVENTION

The Christian Endeavor Convention Chorus met last Tuesday evening for their second rehearsal. Robert Maile of Los Angeles was in charge and Mrs. Spencer Robinson was accompanist for the chorus work.

Already 111 signed cards have been turned in and more are expected, so that a big chorus is assured the Glendale people. However, about 50 of the 111 turned out to the rehearsal. The work is progressing rapidly and much interest is being shown, the tone quality being excellent and the parts well balanced. One anthem is being rehearsed for each evening, the names of the various ones being, "By Babylon's Wave," by Gounod; "The King of Love My Shepherd Is," by Shelley; "Seek ye the Lord," Roberts; "King of Glory," Coleridge Taylor, and "Break Forth Into Joy," Simper.

Mrs. Retts announced the time and place of the remaining meetings as follows:

Tuesday, June 14, Central Christian church, Colorado and Louise.

Thursday, June 16, First Presbyterian, Cedar and Broadway.

Tuesday, June 21, Central Christian church, Colorado and Louise.

Thursday, June 23, Convention auditorium, Harvard and Orange.

The last rehearsal at the auditorium will be the final practice, and, one might say "Dress Rehearsal," as all chorus members are expected to be present and get their badges and regular seats. Those who attend three rehearsals are entitled to badges with the exception of the Burbank Choral club, who are working on the songs to be used, and they will be entitled to badges on attending two rehearsals. Membership in the chorus is by invitation only, each church in Glendale, Eagle Rock and Burbank cooperating, also the Glendale Music club, and the Burbank Choral club, all of which have representatives on the music committee who are working through their organizations.

GLEN AND DALE.

A British soldier in khaki and a British sailor will appear in a new stained window to be installed in St. Albans Cathedral.

FLOCK TO HEAR 'PEGGY'S' HUSBAND

CHICAGO, June 9.—Fashionably dressed men and women flocked to the court room of Judge Joseph Sabath long before court opened today, in expectation of hearing J. Stanley Joyce, multimillionaire lumberman, tell of his "golden romance" with Peggy Upton Archibald Hopkins Joyce.

Joyce was scheduled to appear in court in answer to a subpena served by attorneys for "Pretty Peggy" in the suit brought by Joyce to untie the marital knot, which he avers, has cost him a fortune of more than $1,000,000 in jewels, motor cars, a Miami home and cash.

As a secondary point of interest, Judge Sabath was expected to give his ruling as to whether Peggy herself would be compelled to come here from New York at this time to submit to questioning by Joyce's attorneys. The original plans had been to have Peggy absent herself until the hearing on the divorce bill comes, which probably will not be before fall.

The present court proceedings involve Peggy's resistance to Peggy's demands for temporary alimony of $10,000 a month and $100,000 for solicitors fees.

The occasion for Joyce's summons to court was found in his answer to Peggy's petition in which he declared that instead of being worth $10,000,000 as she alleges, his personal fortune is a matter of less than $3,000,000 and that his income will not permit him to pay the huge sums she has demanded.

Joyce declared he already has given Peggy $1,399,000 in cash and property and asserted she had at least $82,000 in the bank. Peggy declares she has only $24,919 on deposit in a Paris bank.

DECLINING PRICES

Some alarm has been caused by the increase in May in the wholesale price of certain commodities. It has been feared that this indicates a new period of rising values with a corresponding boost in the cost of living. This does not seem likely, however, but it does mean that the violent decline in raw materials is definitely at an end. Many individual commodities will show considerable further revision, in all probability, but the general movement has reached a level at which manufacturers may do business on the basis of their own requirements, irrespective of the market prices of unrelated commodities. The gap between the cost of the raw material and the finished product will close and business will again be on a healthy foundation. The instability of the industrial world has been directly traceable to this abnormal margin existing between the unfinished and the finished article. Herbert P. Howell, New York banker, sees in this condition better times for the future. Discussing the coming period of lower values, he says:

"While the violent general decline in raw materials and related products is over, this does not preclude a slow decline for a period of years. Such a decline would be no menace to sound business. It is perfectly possible in such a period to carry on sound manufacturing and merchandising operations with profit. Gradually falling prices over a period of years would not materially affect the price movement of commodities over such periods as are usually necessary for these operations. The present generation of American business men has been unduly alarmed by the downward tendencies of prices. Rising prices are not necessary to prosperity, and a slow downward movement is discouraging only to reckless speculative activities."

THE LURE

Some time this summer a number of veteran gold prospectors from Yukon and Alaska fields will undertake a daring expedition north from Edmonton, in northwest Canada, in search of a lost river—a river of gold. Years ago an old trapper appeared from out of this frozen land with a fortune of precious metal. It was supposed that he had washed it from some stream unknown to civilization but lying somewhere in the vicinity of Peace river. Indians in this region have told alluring tales of a mystic El Dorado in the northland, and an Indian once brought into Fort St. John a fair-sized gold nugget said to have been found in the bed of this unknown stream. The case smacks of exaggeration, of futile search and intense suffering from the cold. The average citizen would not care to undertake the hardships incident to the expedition even though the reward should be a gold fortune. But the expedition is to go forth. There are men whose blood flows sluggishly in their veins unless fed by just such adventure. The gold rush into California, the wild dash into the Yukon—strange chapters in American history, written by the men who will not stay put—is to be repeated on the bleak stretches of northern Canada. No complete analysis of man can be penned without giving due consideration to the lure of adventure which stirs in his breast.

Talking about epidemics, the most prevalent one in America today seems to be the hip disease.

The greatest of summer sports—picking out a good canteloupe— has begun.

GRAVE AND GAY

Mr. Multikids.—Somehow I can scarcely reconcile myself to the thought of giving my daughter in marriage.

Mr. Newlywed.—I suppose so, but remember, it's better to give than to receive.

She (tenderly).—When did you first know you loved me?

He.—When I began to get mad when people said you were brainless and unattractive.

Mistress.—I should think you would be ashamed to let that policeman kiss you.

Maid.—Yes, but how could I resist the law?

Teacher.—Why is cleanliness next to godliness.

Pupil—Because it comes the day before Sunday.

North.—Do you believe in immortality?

West.—Sure. Look at the campaign promises of a business administration.

"By Jove, Milly, you look topping tonight, but what a fearful lot your frocks must cost me these days!"

"Gilbert, dearest, what does money matter when it's a case of making you happy!"

Stella.—I'm going to get a Hudson seal.

May—My, but your appetite is developing! I can remember when you were daffy about Columbia river salmon.

you step into a cabaret in days, you can wink or let

The man had just informed the Pullman agent that he wanted a Pullman berth.

"Upper or lower?" asked the agent.

"What's the difference?" asked the man.

"A difference of 50 cents in this case," replied the agent. "The lower is higher than the upper. The higher price is for the lower. If you want it lower you'll have to go higher. We sell the upper lower than the lower. In other words, the higher the lower. Most people don't like the upper, although it is lower on account of it being higher. When you occupy an upper you have to get up to go to bed and get down when you get up. You can have the lower if you pay higher. The upper is lower than the lower because it is higher. If you are willing to go higher, it will be lower." But the poor man had fainted!

First Farmer.—That man you've had working for you asked me for a job this morning. Was he a steady chap?

Second Farmer.—He was. If he'd been any steadier, he'd have been motionless.

Caller.—Can I see Mrs. Swellton?

Maid.—She's not at home.

Caller.—When will she be back?

Maid.—Dunno. She ain't gone out yet.

At any rate, you can ask for a nickel's worth of something now without getting a reputation as a humorist.

The figures on a freight car that advertise its capacity are getting to seem a little bit ironical.

WOMAN'S COZY CORNER

By JOSEPHINE FRANCE

FASHION HINTS

Poke bonnets are charming and picturesque and in consequence prove often the wisest choice for bricesmaids.

A new collar seen on many new wraps is very deep at the side, on the shoulders and quite narrow at the front and back.

Pleated ruffles of white organdie trim some very pretty black satin frocks.

Drawnwork is often the only trimming of imported crepe de chine gowns.

Wide fringe is used extensively on the French dresses.

Calico is used for a number of quaint summer frocks. Calico, combined with linen, makes attractive garden or porch dresses.

Soft black Chantilly lace is charming over white satin. This combination makes adorable evening gowns.

The new blouses are of unequal length—longer on the sides than in the front.

Smartness may be won by the sharp contrast of black and white. Very chic is a new coat of black Canton crepe combined and piped with white Canton crepe.

Very smart the new sport suits, having brightly colored jackets with white skirts trimmed with wide bands of the colored material, so as to match the coat.

Attractive afternoon summer dresses will be made of printed chiffon. This new chiffon is very striking, decorated with huge flowers and queer butterflies worked out on a rather dark background.

Cherries, fruit and foliage embellish most effectively some of the prettiest "dressy" hats. The foliage encircles the crown, while the bunches of fruit hang as low as possible on each side.

The "backless gown" seems quite "passe," for which let us all be thankful. It was as unfeminine as it was, as a rule, unbecoming.

Coats are much straighter and have departed altogether from the loose lines of the dolman.

Series of Articles on Patents, Inventions, Etc.

By WILLIAM C. CUTLER of Glendale, California

PATENT APPLICATIONS

After the inventor has carefully described the invention, and prepared drawings, specifications and claims, if not employing an attorney, it would from the patent office?

tions and claims to a competent attorney, getting his opinion on same.

According to the terms of section 1888 of the statutes, the description must be in full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art or science (note, it does not say any unskilled person), to which it appertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to practice the invention. The degree of skill required has been commented on by one of the judges as follows: "Persons skilled in the art to which the specification is addressed are, in fact, those of ordinary and fair information, not those having any great technical knowledge relating to the subject matter of the invention."

Q.—Patent application. What is a?

A.—Certain papers required by the patent statutes, which must be forwarded to the commissioner of patents by the applicant, his legal representative or his attorney. They must be written in the English language.

Q.—Of what do they consist?

A.—A "petition," a "specification," a "drawing," and an "oath," the latter taken preferably before a notary public.

Q.—Prosecute an invention (meaning to prepare and follow it). Can an inventor?

A.—Yes, according to the patent law.

Q.—Should he attempt to do so?

A.—No. His lack of patent office rules, and the skill required to make drawings, write specifications, and claims, make it most difficult for an inventor to exercise this right to the best advantage.

Q.—Preparation of papers. Who may do it?

A.—The applicant may prepare them but he is advised by the patent office to employ a competent patent attorney.

Q.—Technical skill. Is that of the highest order necessary?

A.—Yes; the value of patents depends largely, in order to cover its fullest scope, upon the skillful preparation of the specifications and claims.

Q.—What follows preparation of application?

A.—The attorney files the papers in the patent office, accompanied by the government filing fee of $15.

Q.—How soon after the application is filed can the applicant expect to hear from his application?

A.—No definite statement can be made. It largely depends upon how far the examiners' division, which handles the application, is in arrears. Every application must be handled in the order of receipt.

Q.—Application. Is it usually definitely settled when the attorney hears rfom the patent office?

A.—No, very seldom. References are usually made to prior patents in the same art, which requires the attorney to correspond (it must be done in writing), with the patent examiner.

Q.—Allowed. What is meant by this term?

A.—The patent is allowed when the patent office is satisfied that the invention is patentable and the application is in proper form.

Q.—Ready to issue. Is the patent then?

A.—Yes; on payment of the last government fee of $20.

Q.—Must it issue when allowed?

A.—No; it can remain in the patent office six months after allowance.

Q.—Final government fee. When must it be paid after allowance?

A.—At or before the termination of the six months' period.

Q.—Renewed application. Can an applicant for a patent renew application if he neglects to pay his final fee within the six months from the date it was allowed?

A.—Yes; but the second application must be made within two years of original application, and includes a government fee of $15.

Q.—Can a person, other than the inventor, renew an invention?

6A.—Yes; any person who holds an interest can do so. This fact prevents inventors from wilful abandonment of an invention after selling an interest in same.

Q.—Foreign application. Can an inventor obtain a patent in the United States if a patent application has been filed abroad previously to the United States application?

A.—Yes; unless the foreign application has been filed more than twelve months prior to the filing of the United States application. In design patents the time is four months.

Q.—Changing drawings. Is it possible to materially change the drawings and specifications of a patent application after they have once been filed in the patent office?

A.—No, except in a way which practically amounts to a new application.

Q.—This disadvantage. What does it suggest to the inventor?

A.—That he should be positive before he sends his invention that it contains all the essentials which will be contained in the product as eventually manufactured. This is an important reason why a patent application should not be made before an inventor knows he is right.

.—Marking "patented" before the patent issues. May an article be so marked?

A.—No; but it may be marked 'patent applied for," until it is "allowed" and after allowance, until such time as the patent is issued, "patent allowed."

Q.—Manufacture of invention. Can it be made while the patent is in the patent office?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Patent application. Can it be sold?

A.—Yes; but until it is allowed, there is very little basis for a selling price.

Q.—Amendment. What is it and how does it arise?

A.—It is a change made in the original text of the specifications or claims of a patent application. It is made either voluntarily on the part of the inventor or at the request of the patent examiner.

Q.—Why are changes made?

A.—The inventor makes them either of his own volition to more clearly describe the invention, or to broaden the scope of the patent if the original description justifies it; or at the solicitation of the examiner when the original specifications are too broadly drawn in view of the state of the art. Limitations are then imposed. These changes may be made either in the specifications or the claims.

Q.—Can amendments be made to broaden the scope of the invention?

A.—"The validity of such an amendment depends upon the question whether it brought in original matter or was something that might be fairly deduced from the original application. In the first instance the amendment would not be justified; in the latter it would." Also, it might be noted that these broad claims are not found in the original application of the Johns patent. They were not inserted until five years after the application, and subsequent to the date of the Rowe patent, and to the time when he Rowe patent was put on the market." Court opinions.

Q.—Can new subject matter be introduced?

A.—No. "It is not competent under color of this privilege (amendment), to introduce new matter." Court opinion.

KENOSHA SCEPTICAL OF MIRACLE CURE

(By International News Service)

KENOSHA, Wis., June 9.—The citizenry of this city is divided into two camps over the remarkable recovery of Andrew Morris, a Russian religionist, from crippling injuries, suffered a year ago. Morris and his friends saye he was "miraculously healed" through the "faith of prayer."

Morris prayed in Russian hour after hour at a tiny mission here. He prayed without success. He had used crutches for a year, with limbs all disjointed and twisted horribly. He had been crushed in a Kenosha factory.

One day a fellow missionite told Morris to pray in English. Morris learned the tongue—enough to repeat three or four prayers. Back he went to the mission. He prayed several days without success.

Then came a day when he prayed with a new hope in his voice. He had had a vision the night before. Fifteen minutes of monotonous drooning—then Morris collapsed. Convulsions seized him. He writhed on the floor. Ten minutes later he arose and walked—without crutches.

This is the story of Morris and his friends.

The city is divided in belief.

OBJECTS TO PHOTO ON HIS PASSPORT

(By International News Service)

CHICAGO, June 9.—The state department is to decide one of the most unique objections to passport regulations ever raised here.

Carl W. Johnson, a missionary, refused to have his photograph placed on passports he desired to Norway and Sweden because, he said, "it was against God's will." Johnson invoked the Bible to uphold his stand.

He quoted Exodus 4:20—"Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of anything that is in Heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth."

"I am going abroad on missionary work, but I refuse to have my picture taken because it is in conflict with the Holy Book," he said.

The state department will decide whether the government's rules or the Holy Book shall govern Johnson's passport.

CITIZENS INVESTIGATE EFFECTS OF BOOZE

(By International News Service)

EVANSTON, Ill., June 9.—Evanston now knows "what liquor will do to you."

The scientific effect of illicit imbibing of alcoholic stimulants has been officially recorded through diagnosis of six Evanston citizens who went under the test.

Their reports follow:

No. 1—Beat his wife.

No. 2—Walked through a plate glass window in mistake for a door.

No. 3—Insisted on sleeping in an alley.

No. 4—Tried to water his automobile at a horse trough.

No. 5—Sang funeral hymns.

No. 6—Held the head of No. 5 while keeping time to the hymns.

The six were arraigned before Police Magistrate Boyer. Three were fined $10 each, while two were sent back to their cells to recover speech and locomotion. The sixth was released.

Ruth Stonehouse began her amusement career as a professional dancer.

Name Legion Head in Tokio

(By International News Service)

TOKIO, June 9.—Arnold Cady, of the International Banking company's Yokohama office, was chosen unanimously to head the Tokio-Yokohama post of the American Legion, at a meeting held in Yokohama recently. Mr. Cady's first duty was to aid in the entertainment of General Leonard Wood and the American mission to the Philippines.

Mr. Cady succeeds Alvin J. Accola, of the Truscon Steel companys Tokio office. The American Legion post of Tokio and Yokohama now has eighty-four members.

Croatian Girl Weds Rich Man

(By International News Service)

BOSTON, June 9.—An overseas courtship between an elderly and wealthy Louisana oil broker and the granddaughter of his former chum, had its culmination here in marriage an hour after 25-year-old Maria Kramer, a Croatian, disembarked from the steamer. The groom is John Bersche, 69 years of age. He came here 40 years ago and amassed a fortune. His courtship and proposal and his bride's acceptance were entirely by mail.

TAGGING ALL THE BASES

(By International News Service)

Babe Ruth got out of the lockup, where he spent a "day" for speeding, just in time to tease a base on balls out of Uhle and help the Yanks turn defeat into a victory against the Cleveland Indians.

Singles by Mulligan, Faber and Collins in the tenth inning gave the White Sox their game against Philadelphia.

George Mogridge southpawed the Tigers into submission at Washington.

Lee, Ellerbe and Patsy Collins of the Browns broke up the game at Boston with singles in the ninth.

The Phillies were three runs better than the Cubs in a slugging bee.

McQuillan, Braxton, Watson and Morgan, Brave pitchers, were mauled by the Pirates, who regained the lead in the National League.

Pertica of the Cardinals held Brooklyn to five hits and won easily.

Vera White, a member of the Hal Roach stock company, says she is the niece of General Edmund Allenby, who led the British forces in Palestine.

Bill Russell, Fox star, is contemplating a six-months' layoff.

JAZZ IS BLAMED FOR GIRLS LEAVING HOME

(By International News Service)

BOSTON, June 9.—The lure of jazz music was explained and condemned before a girls' conference of women workers at the Twentieth Century club by Miss Maude E. Miner, secretary of the New York Probation and Protective Association.

The speaker outlined dangers to young girls from dark galleries in moving picture shows and promiscuous automobile riding.

"In treating some of the Boston runaway girls who find themselves in New York I always sympathize with them," she said. "

DOCTORS AND THEIR WIVES GUESTS AT A SMART AFFAIR

Dr. and Mrs. Gerhard Kaemmerling proved themselves to be most charming hosts, when they entertained a group of congenial friends at their home, 340 North Orange street, last evening.

A profusion of pink roses adorned the spacious rooms of the pretty home and a most interesting and enjoyable program delighted the guests. Little Julia Pelley and Gould Moore, pupils of the Pearl Keller studio, were among the entertainers, Julia giving an Oriental dance that was heartily encored and Gould Moore a group of songs and dances that were equally well received.

Other entertainment numbers included a talk by Dr. Bucher on his experiences in Siberia as an officer in the world war; songs by Miss Loomis, a talented niece of Mrs. Boyer, and songs and whistling solos by the hostess, Mrs. Kaemmerling.

A novel feature of the evening was the writing of a limerick by each guest, his theme being his righthand neighbor. The first prize in this mirth provoking stunt was awarded Dr. Swift, while the consolation prize went to Dr. Bobbitt.

An elegantly appointed two-course luncheon was served at midnight to Dr. and Mrs. H. R. Boyer, Dr. and Mrs. Bucher, Dr. and Mrs. A. Newton Bobbitt, Dr. and Mrs. H. V. Brown, Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Bryant, Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Teel, Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Smith, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Eckles, Dr. and Mrs. O. A. Diederich, Dr. and Mrs. Swift, Mrs. Newell and Miss Loomis, of Chicago, Mrs. Boyer's niece and sister; Drs. F. M. Collier, York, Thompson and the host and hostess.

FREDA NEWBURY AND GEORGE GRIST WED THIS MORNING

Young Couple To Make Their Home in Stockton After Honeymoon Trip

George Grist of 503 Vine street and Miss Freda Newbury, 116 Camelos avenue, Verdugo Woodlands, were united in marriage this morning at 11 o'clock at the home of Rev. W. E. Edmonds, 121 South Cedar street.

The newlyweds will catch the Yale for San Francisco this afternoon. From there they will go to Stockton, where they intend to make their home.

Freda Newbury is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Newbury, who have resided in Verdugo Woodlands for the past eight months. George Grist is well-known in Glendale, having lived here for over 15 years. He served in the army during the war and is now first sergeant of the Glendale company of the National Guards.

The wedding was a very quiet one, having been witnessed only by parents of the couple.

DAVE BISNO HAS A NOVEL IDEA

In the brain of Dave Bisno, 110 North Brand boulevard, was born a novel idea to attract attention to the windows of his haberdashery.

He wrote Tex Rickard, promoter of the Dempsey-Carpentier fight, to send him posters for his windows. His request was granted, and in consequence Dave's is probably the only place outside of Jersey City and certainly the only place in Southern California, where two large posters of Dempsey and Carpentier, with their fighting togs on, are on display.

The posters were put up this morning and it took but a few minutes to prove their drawing power, a large crowd congregating immediately, some of the men going inside to ask Dave if he really had tickets for sale.

THEY STILL MOVE AND FINISH HOUSES

Moves in Glendale yesterday were as follows: H. V. Andrews from 525 to 614 North Kenwood; T. Nash from 1231 Dorothy drive; S. N. Brown from 418 East Elk to 409 South Glendale avenue; J. J. Vandenburgh to 909 Melrose; J. D. Root to 247 North Kenwood; C. J. Letts to 109 West Lomita; B. H. Walrond to 441 West Broadway; Mrs. George Van Hazelen to 424 Oak.

The following new buildings and residences are nearing completion; C. R. Hughes, 619 North Isabel; Chives, 444 West California; S. N. Brown, 409 South Glendale avenue; A. L. Blodgett, 825 South Verdugo; H. M. Cleveland, 308 North Isabel; S. N. Dutcher, 1374 North Columbus; J. V. Baldwin, 1313 North Columbus.

MRS. H. TORREY BUYS RESIDENCE

The fine large residence built by Nathan Rigdon, just east of his own home on the corner of Doran and Central, has been sold by him to Mrs. H. Torrey of Wilshire boulevard, Los Angeles. Mrs. Torrey lived on the corner of Orange and Colorado before moving to Los Angeles. After trying both places she has decided she prefers the Wilshire of Glendale to the Wilshire of the Angel City. She will move into her now home tomorrow.

NEW PICKFORD FILM AT PALACE GRAND

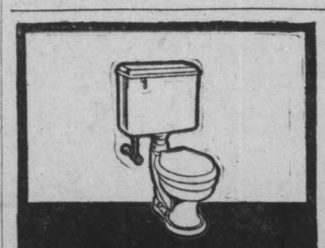
The new Mary Pickford film, "Through the Back Door," which opened at the Palace Grand, yesterday, for a three-day run, is a picture that will delight the many admirers of this charming little actress.

This photo-feature, the basic idea for which was supplied by Little Mary herself, was prepared for the screen by Marion Fairfax, well-known scenarist. It is said to be quite different from anything Miss Pickford has yet attempted, in that the story touches upon an angle of marital relations now to the screen. A wife brings the spectre of divorce into her home when she became a petulant, dissatisfied sort of person through grief for a child she believes dead.

The problem of restoring happiness to this household falls to the lot of Miss Pickford in one of her inimitable character roles. There are innumerable complications, some of them laughable, others quite tragic—all leading up to a denouement logical and satisfying. Admirers of Mary Pickford will see her in a little girl part in this picture, and many pleasant surprises are in store for those seeking something new in the way of comedy.

Rupert Hughes' story for the screen "From the Ground Up." will soon be filmed at the Goldwyn studio on the West Coast. It will be a starring vehicle for Tom Moore.

Eric Von Stroheim's super-production for Universal, "Foolish Wives," will go to the screen sometime in the fall. Its cost has exceeded more than a million real dollars.



NOISELESS
beyond bathroom walls

That's one advantage of the Maddock Madera Silent closet that recommends its use in homes of refinement. Its pleasing design, massive appearance and snow white color are other features that gain it favor.

But, the strength of construction which insures years and years of service without repairs; the easy-cleaning features that save work for the housewife, and the sanitary advantages which protect the family's health—those are considerations that make this fixture worthy of a place in your home.

Let us give you a figure showing how little it will cost to install this fixture in your home.

REBECCA GREGG TO WED DANA BURKET

Ceremony Will Take Place This Afternoon at Home of Bride's Parents

Miss Rebecca Eads Gregg and Albert Dana Burket, son of Mrs. Emma Burket, a former resident of this city, are to be married this afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Lawrence Gregg, 240 North Central avenue. Rev. B. Dudley Snudden of Pasadena will officiate. It will be a simple, but exceedingly pretty wedding, the witnesses being limited to the relatives of bride and groom, but there will be a host of them as both are connected with many families of prominence in our city.

Floral decorations have made a very beautiful setting for the affair. The pretty bride is to wear a wedding gown of real lace over organdie and carry a bouquet of lilies of the valley and roses. There will be no attendants. While the guests await the ceremony there will be cello numbers by Dr. Paul Wismer, for which Miss Gertrude Champlain will furnish an accompaniment.

Following the ceremony will be a brief reception and after that the young couple will leave for their wedding trip. On their return they will be at home to their friends at El Segundo where Mr. Burket is employed by the Standard Oil.

Mr. and Mrs. Burket have a host of friends here whose good wishes will follow them.

NEW HOME OF MR. AND MRS. JONES

Mrs. Mattison B. Jones and her mother are spending a few days at the Jones cottage at Hermosa beach. Mrs. Jones had has a strenuous round of special duties in connection with the Glendale Music club and other organizations with which she is connected and needs a rest before packing up for a summer at the beach. As usual they will rent their home on Brand boulevard.

Work has started on the double garage they are building on their foothill home at Kenneth road and Highland avenue, and the foundations will soon go in for their residence which will not be erected, however, until the latter part of the summer. The garage will be commodious, however, with two bedrooms in the second story, a kitchen and laundry below, and the second garage for a living room. They will occupy it while the new house is building.

HIRE AN 'AUNT' FOR A GUIDE

(By International News Service)

LONDON, June 9.—Have an aunt. Universal aunts rented at reasonable prices. Special prices—probably boosted specially—for American customers.

It's no "leg-pulling" contest. There's no "spoofing" about it. It can be done.

You can step out and hire an aunt, on reasonable terms, for a wide and growing variety of uses, and suit your taste in the picking of them, for the first firm to enter the business has 70 in stock.

It's the "Universal Aunts, Unlimited." Which is to say, that if 70 isn't enough the earnest band of aunts will expand itself and take in new members. The chief aunt is Miss S. Fort. She's to be found at No. 4 Sloane street. She thought up the idea of providing gentlewomen to do, for a price, the various tasks which the average family or the average person of family saddles onto the maiden aunt The idea being that though everybody hasn't a maiden aunt who is free and can be imposed upon, everybody has these odd tasks that "want doing," and folks will pay for the service.

The band of the faithful—women of education and culture—include expert linguists, expert dressmakers, experts at house decoration, experts of all sorts.

They take schoolboys to and from school. They act as buyers for helpless men who want to do the wife proud while on a visit to London and distrust their own taste. They read to invalids and act as companions of travelers. They supervise spring cleaning. They study London's entertainments and are ready to advise or guide visitors about, giving them entertainment according to their taste.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF WEDDING

The Glendale friends of Miss Hazel Shackford are receiving cards announcing her marriage to George F. Bohannon, of Los Angeles, which took place June 1. The happy pair are now away on their wedding trip and will be at home to their friends after July 1 at 740 East Wilson avenue.

Mrs. Bohannon has been a resident of Glendale for a long time and for a number of years was the secretary of Dr. Hurtt, owner of the Hurtt building on East Broadway. She has a large circle of friends and well wishers here.

PERSONAL ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Neale went to Santa Monica Tuesday for their weekly fishing trip and landed about 60 pounds of fish. Mrs. Neale is becoming quite an expert. A week ago she caught an eight and one-half pound halibut.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Montgomery of 1700 Kenneth road are expecting the arrival of their son, Morris Montgomery, from Phoenix, Ariz., to spend the week end with them and then go on to San Francisco to attend a convention of the Credit Men's association. He will return this way and pass several days with his parents before going back to Phoenix.

MRS. JOHN C. DUNN ENTERTAINS PARTY

One of the prettiest of the informal affairs given during the week was the 1 o'clock luncheon with which Mrs. John C. Dunn entertained a party of friends yesterday at her home, 446 West Colorado boulevard.

Pink carnations graced the dainty table, where a four-course luncheon was served to Mmes. Ray Galvin, Walter Stamps, Alvin Dunn, Melvin, Jas. F. McBryde and the hostess.

After luncheon the ladies paid a visit to the boys confined in their beds in the hospital at Thornycroft, bringing them candy, flowers and magazines.

The rest of the afternoon was spent in music and conversation at the home of the hostess.

Sir Auckland Geddes, the popular British ambassador was talking at a luncheon about knighthood. "Knighthood," he said "is quite a complicated subject. Very few people understand the various types of knighthood, their significance and so forth. A young lady once said to a young gentleman: 'What are the Knights of the Bath?' 'Why,' the young gentleman answered, 'why, Saturday night, of course.' "

A crisis a day keeps normalcy away.
